2009 NOAC

National Order of the Arrow Conference Indiana University • Bloomington • August 1-6, 2009

NOAC is the Order Of The Arrow National Conference and is held every two years at a major University. The 2009 NOAC will be held at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, August 1-6, 2009.

The National Order of the Arrow Conference is Scouting's second-largest national program event. These gatherings draw over 8,000 Arrowmen, traveling from as far away as Europe and Asia, for five days of training, fun, and fellowship. With each conference, NOAC becomes more diversified, more fun, and more exciting. The reason for its growing popularity can be attributed to the fact that it is planned and carried out by Arrowmen themselves. Youth involvement ensures that the conference program will be exciting, relevant, and non-stop fun.

NOAC has many different aspects and it is impossible to participate in every event in one year. Each year events are added and changed so you could go to NOAC every time and do new things each time. The main activities at NOAC include training, ceremonies evaluation, American Indian events, shows, competitions, and Founder's Day. NOAC has something for everyone of all backgrounds and all ages. It is definitely one of Scouting's most unique and entertaining events.

Plan now to attend this once in a life time event, Pocumtuc Lodge will have a limited number of spots. Estimated cost is $800. Final costs will depend on the mode of transportation, how many travel days, and how many funds we are able to raise to offset the final cost. Reservations will be taken on a first come, first served basis with preference given to youth members.

A payment schedule will be released as soon as we know more details.

Reserve your spot now with a deposit of $100. Make checks payable to Western Mass Council.
